

Class Instruction

Class offerings will be confirmed upon enrollment of at least 10 students unless otherwise indicated. Each student is responsible for obtaining any material required for class study including any additional supply or stage fees.

Art 1 (grades K-3) – Instructor: Christi Schroader

In this weekly one-hour class, students will be exposed to a variety of art adventures that are both fun and challenging. Projects in drawing, painting, and sculpture provide young artists with opportunities to learn new vocabulary, experience success, and engage in meaningful interaction with peers, teacher, and new art forms.

Art 2 (grades 4-8) – Instructor: Christi Schroader

In this weekly one-hour class, students will experience Art-making in a way that is both engaging and rigorous. Projects in sculpture, painting, drawing, print-making, and more provide broad experience with media and methods, and introduce the fundamentals of design. This course is structured to provide a positive interaction with Art; to sharpen skills; and to build confidence.

Guitar—Advanced (Adults) - Instructor: Janet Sneed

This one hour class is for adults who have some experience playing guitar (electric or acoustic) and want to learn more about using the instrument. Students must be knowledgeable in a certain amount of chords and be able to play non-difficult songs. It does not matter if you play electric or acoustic. If using an electric guitar, students should bring an amplifier. The evening class meets 5 weeks. Permission of instructor is required.

Guitar—Beginner (Adults) - Instructor: Janet Sneed

This one hour class is for adults wanting to learn the guitar, whether they have never played or played years ago and have forgotten. Students will learn the fundamentals of chords, scales, strum patterns and finger picking. Concepts learned in class will be applied to songs and chord progressions. Guitars are available if you do not currently have one. The evening class meets 5 weeks.

Musical Theatre 1 (grades 2-3) – Instructor: Kim Perkins, Shea Roland

This weekly 45 minute class is for children who are beginning to develop their acting, singing, and movement skills. Students will learn the basics of projecting, memorizing, stage direction, pantomime, and character development. At the end of the semester, the class will present a mini-musical where they will showcase their music selections and theatre pieces. This class is specifically designed to engage children who have displayed an interest in theatre in a fun way that sparks their creativity.

Musical Theatre 2 (grades 4-6) – Instructor: Shea Roland

This weekly 75 minute class is for children who wish to develop their acting, singing, and movement skills. Students will learn the basics of projecting, memorizing, stage direction, pantomime, and character development. At the end of the semester, the class will present a musical where they will showcase their music selections and theatre pieces.

Musical Theatre 3 (grades 7-12) – Instructor: Shea Roland

This weekly 90 minute class is for children who wish to develop their acting, singing, and movement skills. Students will learn the basics of projecting, memorizing, stage direction, pantomime, and character development. At the end of the semester, the class will present a musical where they will showcase their music selections and theatre pieces. This class is specifically designed to engage children who have displayed an interest in theatre in a fun way that sparks their creativity.

Summer Offerings

Curtain Call Camp (grades 2-12) - Instructor: Shea Roland

A week of exploring the world of musical theatre where every student will find a place to shine. The campers will participate in the building and performing of a musical. There will be sessions in scenery, character make-up, costumes, acting, dancing, singing and other areas of theatre production. A performance will be held on Friday evening. Auditions for special parts in the performance are usually held in May.

Guitar Academy (ages 10–adult) - Instructor: Janet Sneed

A week of daily sessions for students with a good knowledge of chords and the ability to change them easily can expand their skills in a class setting. Students do not have to read music. The sessions will offer studies in music theory and application, transposing keys, voicing... using the complete guitar, finger exercises, analyzing chords and music interpretation, and improvisation. Each student must supply their own guitars (acoustic, electric or bass) and any other necessary equipment (amps, cords, capo, picks, tuner, pedals, etc.)

Summer Strings Orchestra (grades 5-8) – Instructor: Andie Smith

In this weekly one-hour class, beginning string students who have played in a school orchestra or studied privately at least one year will develop skills needed in ensemble and orchestra settings. This class is a supplement to private string lessons, not a substitute.
